[1] THE COURT: THE COURT: I will grant the application. I am going to cancel the undertaking and promise to appear for -- and I will just read the numbers into the record because I think the -- I will come my reasons in a moment. I have Westley Dixon Sherrick, Balbir Singh Grewal, Lokhvir Singh Grewal, Partap Singh Grewal, Jaginder Singh Gill, Charnjit Singh Gill.

[2] All of those processes are cancelled because, given what I have heard by way of submissions and documents handed up, the conditions of the undertakings are far too oppressive, given the nature of the alleged offences and the location of the alleged offences.

[3] The undertakings and promises to appear are quashed and should the Crown decide to proceed, they can issue a summons to all of the alleged offenders. So they are quashed.
